SPRING CLEANING THIS COMING SATURDAY

30-MINUTE ORGAN CONCERT

Next Sunday, April 14 – 11:00 a.m.

One of Phil Holzman's professional goals for 2019 is to learn or re-learn a major piece of organ literature each quarter this year and present a brief organ concert after worship. The first of these concerts take place next Sunday when he will share Chorale in E Major by César Franck (1822-1890). Everyone is invited to get a snack and a beverage and return to the sanctuary at 11:00, even taking a seat in the choir loft for an up close and personal experience, to enjoy this organ concert. We'll be on our way by 11:30.

MONDAY NIGHT BOOK CLUB ON APRIL 15

Join Monday Night Book Club as we participate in GA's April discussion about racial justice. On Monday, April 15, we will discuss the introduction and first two chapters (essays) of A Good Time for the Truth: Race in Minnesota edited by Sun Yung Shin. This book is a compilation of essays written by 16 Minnesota authors. Read about their different perspectives of what it is like to live as a person of color in Minnesota.

We will meet downstairs at 7:00 p.m. on April 15. Books will be provided in the narthex starting today, during the racial justice workshop tomorrow, as well as at the book club on the 15th.
