GOD'S WORK. OUR HANDS. SUNDAY!

We have been collecting supplies for one of our Mission Partners, Avenues for Homeless Youth, since the beginning of August. We'll be organizing and assembling the donations after worship today so that they can be delivered to Avenues and distributed to program participants. Thank you to everyone who has so generously contributed to this project.

GOODBYE RECEPTION FOR PASTOR JO AND TOM

Please plan to attend the going-away party for Pastor Jo and Tom next Sunday, Sept. 15, immediately following the worship service in the Fellowship Hall. Cake and beverages will be provided.

FROLIC & SUNDAY SCHOOL OPEN HOUSE TODAY

Today after worship, parents and students can stop by the Frolic Room (downstairs) and the Sunday School area (upstairs) to meet the staff and register for the year.

Frolic is for little ones ages 0-36 months and their caregivers to join during the Sunday school hour to play and develop relationships. We have circle time where we sing songs, pray, and read a story. Please join us starting Sept. 22.

Sunday school classes for age 3 through grade 5 also start Sept. 22. No classes on the 15th as all are invited to attend the reception for Pastor Jo and Tom.

MONDAY NIGHT BOOK GROUP MEETS TOMORROW

Monday Night Book Club will wrap up our conversation of James Cone's book The Cross and the Lynching Tree on Monday, September 9, at 7:00 p.m. at GA. Join us for discussion. Please bring suggestions for our next read!
