ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING HELD LAST SUNDAY

Members and friends of GA Church gathered after worship last Sunday for the annual meeting of the congregation. We heard and read reports, recognized leaders who served in 2019, elected three members to the church council, and approved the church budget for the upcoming year.

If you were unable to attend the annual congregational meeting, we encourage you to pick up a copy of the booklet of reports and take some time to read the reports from staff and groups within the church from 2019 as well as take a look at financial reports from 2019 and the 2020 budget that was adopted at the meeting. Copies of the booklet are available in the Narthex.

FOCUS GROUPS CONTINUE

There is still time to sign-up for one of the focus groups meeting with Pastor Susan.

She would like to meet with as many people as possible. Check out the clipboard on the "interim table" in the Narthex. If none of the dates work for you, please let Pastor Susan know, and she will schedule an individual session with you.

WINTER WORK DAY AT LUTHER PARK

Camp director Joel Legred is inviting folks to come to Luther Park for a Winter Work Day on Saturday, Feb. 22, to do some chain sawing/log splitting and hauling, possible snow moving and cleaning up, as well as some inside work on the new retreat center, as well as other tasks as they come up. If you can help, please contact Joel at 612-987-6628 or jlegred@lutherpark.com to let him know you can help.
